New Trekking Trail on Hakusan-Shirakawago White Road 1

A new trekking trail has opened along the Hakusan-Shirakawago White Road, a 33.3km road connecting Hakusan in Ishikawa Prefecture with the historical village of Shirakawago in Gifu Prefecture. The new 3.4km (round-trip) trail is beautifully maintained, so even novice mountaineers give it a try. The trail goes along mountain ridges which offer incredible views, and from the peak of Sanpo-Iwadake mountain you can see a 360o panoramic view of Hakusan and Tateyama, two of Japan's Three Holy Mountains.

Access 1hr 25min by car from Kanazawa Station to Chugu Toll Booth → 35min by car from Chugu Toll Booth to Toga no Kidai Parking Lot

Ishikawa's Nighttime Attractions

Beautiful Illuminations

Gyokusen-Inmaru Garden

• Kanazawa Castle Park and Gyokusen-Inmaru Garden 5

Every evening on Fridays, Saturdays, and days before holidays, Gyokusen-Inmaru Garden and Kanazawa Castle Park are opened to the public. In Gyokusen-Inmaru Garden, you can see a repeating 7-minute illumination show that uses the old stone walls of Kanazawa Castle as a backdrop.

Time: Sunset to 9PM

<http://www.pref.ishikawa.jp/siro-niwa/kanazawajou/e/night/index.html>

• Kenrokuen Garden 5

Once every season, Kenrokuen Garden has a limited-time nighttime illumination event during which the garden's foliage is lit up in a fantastic display of light. During the autumn illumination, visitors can see the rare combination of beautiful autumn leaves on display along with one of Kenrokuen's seasonal icons, the Yukizuri (conical rope supports which protect the trees from Ishikawa's heavy winter snow).

Event Period: September 13th (Friday) to 17th (Tuesday) 7PM to 9PM

November 2nd (Saturday) to 24th (Sunday) 5:30PM to 9PM

Access: 20min via bus from Kanazawa Station Kenrokuen (Eastern) Exit → Get off at Hirosaka or Kenrokuen-shita Bus Stop

• Senmaida Rice Fields Illumination 6

During the event period, over 25,000 LED lights illuminate the Shiroyone Senmaida Rice Fields, symbol of the Noto region's Satoyama-Satoumi ecological system (recognized as a Globally Important Agricultural Heritage site). As darkness falls after sunset, the gently glowing lights outlining the fields make for a romantic sight.

Event Period: October 19th (Saturday) 2019 to March 15th (Sunday) 2020
4 hours after sunset

Location: Wajima, Shiroyone-machi, Ha-99-5

Access: 2hrs via Wajima Limited Express bus from Kanazawa Station → Get off at Wajima Station → 20min via route bus → Get off at Shiroyone Senmaida bus stop

* During the event period, a short-term bus departing from Wajima Station is also available

<http://senmaida.wajima-kankou.jp/en/>

• Sakura-gai Beachside Illumination 7

During this event, the Masuhogaura coastline near the (Former) Longest Bench in the World is lit up by countless LED lights. The lights come in bright pink, representing the delicate pink Sakura-gai seashells which are known to wash up along the Masuhogaura coastline, and deep blue, representing the deep blue sea.

Event Period: August 10th (Saturday) to November 30th (Saturday) 2019

4 hours after sunset

Location: Hakui-gun, Shika-machi, Togiryokei-cho, Ta-2-11

Access: 30min via Limited Express Train from Kanazawa Station to Hakui Station → 55min via bus from Hakui Station, get off at Togi bus stop

Relaxing Nighttime Walks

• Higashi-Chayagai and Kazuemachi Teahouse Districts 5

When evening falls, the Higashi-Chayagai teahouse district is illuminated by the gentle light of lanterns hanging from the eaves of the teahouses. The muffled sounds of shamisen and taiko drums can sometimes be heard coming from the teahouses, giving the area a relaxed atmosphere in stark contrast to the bustle of the morning and afternoon. Located along the Asano-gawa riverside a mere 5 minute walk from Higashi-Chayagai is Kazuemachi, where cobblestone paths and stairs weave through the quiet teahouse district, making it a perfect spot to enjoy a peaceful nighttime stroll.

Access: 7min via bus from Kanazawa Station's Kenrokuen (Eastern) Exit → Get off at Hashiba-cho bus stop → 5min walking
