Ishikawa Access Guide

Ishikawa is located on the side of Japanese Sea and almost exactly in the center of Honshu Island. Ishikawa has a slender elongated shape running north to south and a total area of approximately 4185 sq. km, and a population of 1166507 (as of 1st April, 2009). The main Prefectural Office of Ishikawa is located in Kanazawa; Kanazawa is the administrative and economic center of Hokuriku region, since a number of vital functions are centralized here in the form of local branch offices of government agencies, as well as financial institutes and industrial corporations. Ishikawa also provides an easy access to the 3 major Japanese metropolitan cities of Tokyo, Osaka and Nagoya.
